RAIPUR, Dec 1

IIM Raipur recently celebrated the Constitution Day to commemorate the adoption of the Constitution of India as Jan Bhagidari and to honour as well as acknowledge the contribution of founding fathers of the constitution.

On the occasion, an essay writing competition was organised on the theme 'India - the Mother of Democracy' at IIM Raipur. Students in huge numbers participated in the competition and winners were also awarded with exciting prizes.

The idea of Bharat was cherished as all the students came together to read the Preamble on November 26 in not just the English language but other languages as well.

The students also participated in an online quiz for which the link was shared by the ministry.

The Constitution Day celebration went smoothly with the help of the faculty, staff and students of IIM Raipur.

Students took pledge of Constitution Day during the programme.
