

Equinox 8.0 of IIM-Raipur comes to end on an enthralling note

winners of the 'Socialis Procurator' case study competition.

■ Staff Reporter
RAIPUR, Mar 11

THE last day of Equinox 8.0 marked a number of business and fun events, where the students from different colleges all across India displayed their talent and business acumen.

'Influence', Chhattisgarh's largest student run Marketing Conclave was organised by Mantra, the Marketing Club of Indian Institute of Management (IIM) Raipur.

'Vardhushik', the Merger & Acquisition case study challenge was organised by Finatix, the Finance Club of IIM Raipur. The members of the winning team were Uday Nattoo, Ila Jha and Himanshu Singh from IIM Raipur while the members of the runners up team were Adarsh Kedia, Ananya Agarwal and Rohit Arun Agrawal from XUB college.

Tarkash 4.0, organised by PROvaktā-Public Speaking Club of IIM Raipur, a debate competition was conducted in two phases. The winners were Team Butch and Sundance from HNLU Raipur and runners up were team Rated U/A from IIM Raipur.

'Socialis Procurator', case study competition was organised by Kartavya that set the stage for tomorrow's leaders and combines innovation and resourcefulness to address critical social and environmental challenges.

The gathering was addressed by Dr Dhananjay Bapat, Chairman, SAC, IIM Raipur. Six teams were invited to present their ideas. Total of 13 students participated in the competition with innovative ideas in mind. The winners of the competition were: Aman Arora, Kunal Kumar and Ravinder Pratap Singh from IIM Nagpur whose idea was to enable inmates of Tihar Jail to make handicrafts, artwork and embroidery in collaboration with Tribal people and Government through the process of procurement and knowledge transfer. The runners up were: Shakti Mishra, Abhinav Poddar and Megha Kanapala from IIM Raipur whose idea was to create an organisation that makes, supplies and delivers food to the homeless and is run by the homeless.

X-Quiz-It, the business quiz organised by the quizzing club, IIM Raipur was conducted by quizmaster Somnath Chanda. It is a national level business quiz open for both corporate as well as college students. An online prelim and an on-campus prelim were conducted. The event witnessed huge participation from colleges and corporate alike. From each of the online and on-campus prelims, 4 teams were selected, who made it to the finals. The winners were Team SAIL and runners up were team NIT Rourkela.

The three day cultural and business fest of IIM Raipur came to an end on a high note. The final act of Equinox 8.0 was a performance by the Fusion Band 'Swarantar', and the audience swayed to peppy international numbers and energetic Bollywood hits during the DJ night that followed.