

Constitution Day celebrated at IIM-R

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

Raipur: Indian Institute of Management, Raipur celebrated Constitution Day to mark the 126th birth anniversary of chairman of the drafting committee of the constitution, Dr BR Ambedkar.

The celebrations began with a speech by IIM-R director Professor BS Sahay, who elaborated on how India is a sovereign, socialist, secular and democratic republic, assuring its citizens of justice, equality, liberty and endeavours to promote fraternity among them. He read out the preamble of the Constitution and explained the true meaning.

Professor PRS Sarma elucidated on the concept of 'Samvidhan'.

He explained how the Constitution of India is the supreme law of the nation and how it lays down the framework defining fundamental political principles, powers and duties of government institutions and sets out fundamental rights and the duties of the citizens.

Then, all those present, took a pledge to not to restore to violence under any circumstances and have a firm belief on the constitution of the country.

At the debate competition, students spoke on the need of autonomy in bureaucracy for growth of our country. Nishant Joshi secured the first place while the second position was shared by Shagun Pal and Soaham Dutta. Arkaprabha Bhattacharya was awarded consolation prize. Later, an essay competition was organised. Avikal Khare and Shibin George won the first and second prize respectively while Shreyash Kedia and Kamera Vishwas were awarded consolation prizes.

The celebrations concluded with a quiz on Constitution. Abdul Khadar and Sayyed Muhammed secured the first place while Aditi Koomar and Saubh Lad bagged the second spot.