

Wrestler Babita Phogat to run for Clean India IIM-R To Organise Marathon On Feb 12

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

File Pic

Raipur: Supporting the cause for a better and clean India, freestyle wrestler Babita Phogat, who inspired Amir Khan to make Bollywood blockbuster Dangal, will turn up at marathon slated to be held at Indian Institute of Management (IIM) Raipur on February 12.

IIM-Raipur marathon based on the theme of 'Swachh Bharat' aims to bring together citizens and students from all walks of life to run for raising awareness on Clean India. Team Prayaas invites people to come and support the cause and participate in marathon and run for a cause with Prayaas to bring forth a change. Commonwealth Games Champion 27-year-old Babita Phogat will be present at the event to support the noble cause.

In 2010, Babita became the second female wrestler from India to win a medal at world championships, followed by another big achievement when re she won gold medal in 2014 Commonwealth Games in Glasgow. The second of the Phogat sisters has been long touted as the most talented wrestler in the country's history. She will be there to deliver the message to mobilise and educate urban youth about making the right lifestyle choices that do not expose them to diseases. She along with the participants will pledge to maintain clean streets and focus on sanitation and maintaining a hygienic environment. This campaign of Swachh Bharat which has been initiated globally towards cleanliness is a big challenge for all the citizens of India.

Renowned wrestler Babita Phogat

It is only possible if each and every person living in India takes up the responsibility and take pledge to make it a successful mission.