

Sixth annual convocation of IIM-R on May 5

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

Raipur: The convocation ceremony of Indian Institute of Management (IIM) Raipur will be held on May 5. The sixth annual convocation ceremony will be held on Friday at GEC Campus, IIM Raipur.

Chief minister, Raman Singh will be the chief guest for the evening. Professor Bharat Bhasker, director IIM Raipur said, "Our students are our brand ambassadors. They will go out into the world with the learning they acquired here at IIM Raipur and will make us proud with their contributions and achievements."

The convocation will begin at 4 PM with arrival of chief minister followed by robing of gown, group photograph, briefing of having a permanent campus of IIM and academic procession to convocation hall.

Awards and medal to students by the chief guests would be held at around 5.30 pm.