

IIM-R felicitates Achievers on Ch'garh Foundation Day event

Raipur, Nov 02:

To celebrate the success of talents in Chhattisgarh on the occasion of Chhattisgarh Foundation Day and to spread awareness about social issues prevailing in the nation, Prayaas - the marathon team of Indian Institute of Management Raipur celebrated Chhattisgarh Foundation Day with the event here.

The event witnessed dignitaries from all walks of life who have made tremendous achievements in their fields. Their commitment to the work and stupendous contributions have added pride to the state of Chhattisgarh. The event was graced by Dr. Sanjay Alung, Director Social Welfare Department, Govt. of Chhattisgarh, Sharad Jha, General Manager of NABARD, Sadhana Sharma - Women Achiever, India 2016, Pramod Sahu - Painter and Sand Artist, Satish Bhuwalke & Sachin Bhuwalke- Founders of Bunch of Fools and Priyank Patel - Founder of Teafe Nukkad. Dr. Sanjay Alung explained about the accessibility of education and the inclusion of society among all the various levels which have to be critically analyzed for the better well-being of the nation. 'Sex ratio can be handled only when inclusiveness has been taken up by everyone as a citizen of this nation'. Sharad Jha spoke about the grave issues faced by women in India while also highlighting the importance of educating a girl child, women rights in India and women empowerment. Priyank Patel inspired everyone by sharing his experiences about the Nukkad Cafe where he asserted that it is Asia's first cafe to be open for transgender as part of its workforce and also mentioned 'Compassion is the way forward' for betterment of humanity.
