

IIM's Campus Club hosts programme 'Abhivaadan'

A cultural performance presented during the programme.

■ Staff Reporter

RAIPUR, May 6

TO RECOGNISE the accomplishment of the institute's staff on the 'May Day', the Campus Club of Indian Institute of Management (IIM) Raipur hosted a programme 'Abhivaadan'.

The celebration was designed to convey gratitude to staff for their hard work and acknowledge their contribution to the smooth functioning of the institute. The invitees of the program were the housekeeping staff, security guards, kitchen team, office boys, gardeners, and the sports complex helpers and others support staff.

The event was inaugurated by the elderly helpers of the institute. The invitees put together a stunning cultural program which included musical performances, poetry recitals in native Chhattisgarhi language, chhattisgarhi folk dance, drama, games, and more.

The event marked the participation with enthusiasm from all the workers. The winners of the various competitions and cultural programmes were felicitated by Vipra Kakani, member of IIM Raipur Campus Club. Gifts were distributed to all the workers as a token of appreciation for their contribution to the institute.

Professor Ram Kumar Kakani, Director of IIM Raipur, addressed the gathering and extended his sincere thanks to all the workers for their continued unwavering support to the institute. He encouraged them to make progress in life and ensured adequate support from the institute in their development.

The Hitavada, 7th May 2022, p. 4 (City Line)