academic information and materials organization of joint degree programs/certification course Organization of joint research/consultancy projects organization of joint conferences and organization of other academic exchanges agreeable to both universities.

These programs will offer an overall development to the participants and groom them to face the global challenges. In addition to the exchange programme, annual cooperation programs will also be planned and presented to the relevant administrative authorities as well as annual reports will be produced by each institution and sent to the other, together with any suggestions for improvements.

According to IIM Raipur's

officials, the institute strongly believes in the slogan 'Sva-Karma Niratah Siddhim' implying each member of our institute believes that 'through one's role-actions, one attains perfection'. With this belief, the institute promotes excellence in academics, creates a strong industry interface and international relations.

Notably, School of Planning and Architecture (SPA), New Delhi is a premier institute of architecture established in the year of 1941. It is deemed to be a university having recognition as an institute of national importance.

The institute is ranked among the top architectural colleges in India and the one of the best architecture colleges in Asia. It offers BArch, BPlan at the UG level, MArch, MPlan, MDes, MBEM at the PG level, and also doctoral programmes.
