RAIPUR, Aug 5

IIM Raipur campus club organised 'Hariyali' – the Sawan Celebration recently. Rajni Moona graced the celebration as Chief guest.

In the programme, the women of IIM Raipur family participated with great enthusiasm in green dress code. The programme started with the traditional ceremony of the beautifully decorated Sawan Swing which was thoroughly enjoyed by the ladies.

The sawan jhoola and the selfie point, the beautifully decorated corner for photo session were the center of attraction. As planned, the event started with applying of tilak on the forehead of all women. After welcoming and honoring the guests, everyone enjoyed folk dance, singing, games and recreational activities. All the participants introduced themselves on the stage and shared their views about sawan celebration in their own culture.

More than 20 members were present in this programme. The programme was successfully conducted by Vipra Kakani, Member of Campus Club. All the winning participants were felicitated by the Campus Club.

Professor Damini Saini won the Beautiful Smile Award. The awards were presented to Renu for Best Performance, Neeta for Masti Dance, Pallavi for Best Voice and Vipin for Best Dress. The winner of the fun game was Lakshmi. The programme ended with vote of thanks followed by delicious refreshments.
