

Press Note : IIM Raipur Celebrates International Labour Day

Raipur, 1st May 2023, 3.30 pm: The Indian Institute of Management (IIM) Raipur celebrated International Labour Day today at its auditorium, Madai on the institute's premises. IIM Raipur's celebration of this day was a tribute to the hard work and contribution of workers towards the growth of the institute. The event was organized by the IIM Raipur Campus Club Committee-Sangwari. It was attended by the institute's director, CAO, faculty, staff, students and other members of the IIM community.

The programme commenced with a lightening of lamp by the director, Prof. Ram Kumar Kakani. The Director in his welcome address and May Day speech encouraged the workers to work without fear, do their duty with self-respect, dream high, and save some amount of their earnings for a better future. He also appreciated and acknowledged the hard work of the workers.

The cultural programme was presented by the workers of IIM Raipur who showcased their talents in music and dance. The performances included Chhattisgarhi dance, skit, and songs. The audience appreciated the performance and applauded the efforts of the workers.

As a mark of appreciation to workers' effort, memento distribution to each worker was made during the programme by the Director and the CAO. The CAO, Col. (Dr.) Harindra Tripathi (Retd.), addressed the gathering and spoke about the history and significance of May Day and the role of trade unions in the Indian context. He thanked the organizers and performers for their contribution to the event and emphasized the importance of recognizing the unseen hands that contribute to the growth of the institute.

The event concluded with a vote of thanks by Shri. Hiralal Nirmalkar, an employee of the institute. The International Labour Day celebration at IIM Raipur was a success, and it provided an opportunity for the workers and staff to come together and celebrate their efforts and hard work.

