

IIM holds training for Vidhan Sabha Secretariat Staff

Assembly Secretariat staff from various states, who took part in the three-day long training program organised by IIM Raipur.

■ Staff Reporter
RAIPUR, Aug 1

IN ITS endeavour to make its contribution towards the promotion of excellence and capacity building of existing and future leaders, Indian Institute of Management Raipur has Collaboration with PRS Legislative Research on Management for secretariat staff and had organised three days Training Programme recently for the Vidhan Sabha Secretariat Staff, who came from different States of India.

In the fourth batch of the training program twenty-six participants have attended the program from across the states of Andhra Pradesh, Bihar, Gujarat, Nagaland, Sikkim, Uttarakhand and Uttar Pradesh.

Professor Ram Kumar Kakani, Director IIM Raipur shared his valuable insights and programme vision during the inaugural ceremony.

Prof Rashmi Shukla, Programme Director, took sessions on time management, and team building among other sessions.

Chakshu Roy and his team from PRS took sessions on understanding the Budget, Effective support to legislators and best practices of state legislators, among other sessions. Professor Kamal K Jain, Mentor

Dean shared his valuable insights during the programme valedictory. Participants found the programme very interactive and useful to exchange notes building a community that could learn from each other even in the future.

An official communiqué stated that Executive Learning and Development Centre at IIM Raipur looks forward to opportunities to contribute towards administrative training.