

IIM-Raipur designs programme for Kendriya Bhandar

New Delhi: A training programme designed by the Indian Institute of Management - Raipur (IIM-Raipur) for officials of Kendriya Bhandar was inaugurated on Friday by Union minister Jitendra Singh who termed it as a shining example of government organisation investing in growth of professionalism of their workforce.

The programme, which is envisaged to improve skills of all its employees and keep up with changing times, is expected to create enthusiasm in the cooperative sector.

In his address, Singh commended the dedication of Kendriya Bhandar vision of employee development through this collaboration with IIM-Raipur.

It is a significant milestone and a shining example of a government organisation investing in the growth and professionalism of its workforce, Singh was quoted in an official release as saying.