Business Analytics

20 -22 Dec 2024

Programme Director
Dr. Jighyasu Gaur

Introduction (Programme)

Data analytics is crucial as it empowers organizations to derive valuable insights from vast data sets, enabling informed decision-making. By analyzing trends, patterns, and correlations, businesses gain a competitive edge, optimize processes, and identify opportunities for growth. Data analytics transforms raw data into actionable intelligence, facilitating a deeper understanding of markets, customer behavior, and operational dynamics, ultimately shaping a more agile and adaptive business landscape. This programme aims to provide participants with a comprehensive understanding of business analytics, hands-on experience with analytical tools, and the ability to apply analytics in strategic decision-making. The combination of theory, practical exercises, and case studies ensures a well-rounded learning experience.
