Programme Directors

Dr Ram Kumar Kakani is the Director at the Indian Institute of Management (IIM) Raipur, an institute of national importance, and is on sabbatical from IIM Kozhikode.

Ram started as a technocrat in the corporate sector and moved towards the higher education world, focusing on the trilogy of finance-performance strategy. Earlier, Ram was a Professor at XLRI Jamshedpur and LBSNAA Mussoorie. Ram also held the position of Director of the Government of India's National Centre for Leadership Development and Competency Assessment Abroad; he worked as an academic in Denmark, Nigeria, Singapore, and UAE.

Ram has co-authored books with publishers ranging from Cambridge and Sage to Routledge. His textbooks with McGraw-Hill run into multiple editions. Ram believes, 'Often people are competent but not actionable.' Thus, Ram hopes to consolidate his learnings by merging his cross-functional insights in Business, Financial Analysis, Governance, Public Policy, and Leadership Development—and make life more meaningful.

Prof. Umesh Sharraf did his schooling at St Xavier's Bokaro; B.Tech. (Mechanical Engg.) from I.I.T. Kanpur in 1985; P.G.D.M. from I.I.M.
