Abstract: SEBI has introduced a beta version of its settlement calculator to estimate indicative settlement amounts for settlement proceedings. Entities can settle securities law violations by admitting or denying charges and paying a settlement amount. The calculator lets applicants input details about violations, regulatory history and include details of SEBI actions and ongoing proceedings. Notably, the US SEC settles more than 98 per cent of its enforcement cases, showcasing settlement mechanisms' effectiveness and potential benefits in regulatory frameworks. India may adopt norms to expedite the settlement process, enhancing ease for market participants and regulators and curbing intentional delays. SEBI must conduct awareness campaigns on the settlement process, similar to financial literacy schemes.

Abstract: Research methodology is an integral part of the knowledge generation and dissemination processes. A hypothesis has a significant role in research methodology, and theory building is a major step in the research process. This book is a comprehensive guide to theory-building for hypothesis specification in academic research in organizational studies.

The book takes readers through the process of theory building for specifying hypotheses. It describes the nature, components, and structure of theory and the process of theory-building. It does so by using relevant examples that illustrate this process comprehensively. While the main focus of the book is on theory building for hypothesis specification in the area of organizational studies, it could also be relevant to the other areas of the management field such as marketing, strategy and policy, business communication, and general management and to various areas in the social and behavioural sciences such as psychology and sociology. This revised edition also includes an afterword with further reflections by the author on the themes discussed in the chapters.

This lucidly written book will be a handy resource for research degree program students and researchers, especially in the fields of organizational, social and behavioural sciences including organizational behaviour, human resource management, marketing, strategy and policy, general management, psychology, and sociology.

Event

RANG – The Cultural Committee of Indian Institute of Management Raipur emphasizes on "Preserving and Encouraging Joy." At RANG, our goal is to bring a lasting feeling of liveliness and enthusiasm to the college environment. We take great pride in organizing inclusive and unforgettable events, making sure that no important celebration goes unnoticed by us. Furthermore, we go beyond just celebrating; we organize cultural events that promote unity and a sense of community among students from various regions in the country.

We aim to establish a sanctuary that is like home, a place where each person can enjoy the diverse array of our country's culture. We support students in displaying their talents, whether it be in dance, music, acting, painting, writing, poetry, or any other form of artistry. Our platform acts as a springboard for aspirations, motivating students to showcase their talents to others.

1. Munshi Premchand Jayanti

The celebration of Munshi Prem Chand Jayanti takes place every year on 31st July to commemorate the birth of Munshi Prem Chand, a highly esteemed Indian writer. Prem Chand, originally named Dhanpat Rai Srivastava, was born in 1880 and significantly influenced the development of contemporary Hindi and Urdu literature.

Literary communities, schools, and cultural institutions in India commemorate his contributions by holding readings, discussions, and seminars on his works on this day. He is best known for his authentic depiction of social problems like poverty, caste discrimination, and the struggles of farmers.

Munshi Prem Chand's birth anniversary is a testament to his lasting impact on Indian literature and his strong dedication to social change through his writings. The event started with a welcome note, followed by the inauguration of the event by the lighting of lamps by our director and esteemed faculty members. Thereafter a drama was performed by the kids on "Maya Mili Na Ram" which highlights the idea that worldly attachments and material desires can distract individuals from spiritual truth and connection with the divine. We had a poetry performance by PGP23-25 student and a drama by Team Navarasa on “Buddhi Kaki”, a play which explores themes of tradition versus modernity, highlighting the wisdom of older generations and the complexities of familial relationships. Following this was a dance performance by PGP24-26 students and a music performance by Team Tarang. The event was concluded with a Vote of Thanks.

2. IIM Raipur Hosts “Partition Horrors Remembrance Day” event

In remembrance of the deeply significant chapter in the history of India’s independence, an event titled, “Partition Horrors Remembrance Day” was curated under the guidance of the Ministry of Education, Government of India at IIM Raipur on 14th August 2024.

This event aimed to pay tribute to all the countless Indians who lost their lives and endured the pain and suffering of the horrors of partition through the powerful medium of theatre followed by an informative exhibition after the program.

The day commenced with a brief introduction on the significance of this tragic event, the chief guest Shri Narendra Jain Ji, a renowned social worker since 1985, was then felicitated with a bouquet by Col. (Dr.) Harindra Tripathi, CAO IIM Raipur.

To mark the beginning of this poignant event, Shri Narendra Jain, Prof. Damini Saini, and the CAO solemnly participated in a lamp-lighting ceremony in memory of the martyrs.

The attendees were then moved by a thought-provoking play, curated by the esteemed National School of Drama (NSD) that showcased the episodic bytes of the pains and struggles of the innumerable lives. The performance aimed to honour the victims and foster an understanding of empathy and togetherness among the attendees, leading to a speech by the chief guest who emphatically praised the play. In his speech, he reminded everyone of several important events of the freedom struggle that led to the partition and said, “To make India a global leader, and realize its full potential, we must observe our shortcomings and work towards bridging the gap between where it is now, and where it needs to be.”

Dhruv Deshmukh, a PGP student at IIM Raipur performed a song that stirred the spirits of patriotism among the students followed by the resounding notes of the National Anthem.

The event concluded with a speech by Col. (Dr.) Harindra Tripathi, who rightly stated, “If we as Indians don’t put our nation first above everything else, we might face the danger of falling into shackles of someone else’s rule”, followed by felicitation of the chief guest with a souvenir and the attendees departing to experience the exhibition.

3. Janmashtami

Janmashtami, coordinated by RANG – The Cultural Committee, is a fantastic opportunity to enhance our college journey and foster a more unified community. This celebration, dedicated to honouring the birth of Lord Krishna, gives students a special chance to learn about and admire Hindu customs, as well as the wider cultural history of India. It is not just a party; it's a chance to explore and connect with a deep cultural history that can improve our appreciation and acceptance of various customs.

Joining in Janmashtami festivities brings students from diverse backgrounds together, promoting feelings of togetherness and acceptance. It assists in establishing an inviting atmosphere where all individuals are valued and respected, closing cultural divides and encouraging mutual admiration.

The festival began with the respected guests and students performing Krishna Aarti. Following the Aarti and Prasad distribution, there were 2 Dance Performances, one by PGP Batch 24-26 students and one by Team Sparx. Later on, we arranged a Matki Phod competition where teams build human pyramids to break matkis filled with curd, representing Krishna's playful side. The Senior and Junior PGP Batches competed against each other, bringing more energy to the event. The whole event ended with energetic dancing and DJ music.

Finance min unveils vision double GSDP at Rural Dialogue

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

Raipur: Chhattisgarh Finance Minister O.P. Choudhary presented an ambitious vision for the state, aiming to double the gross state domestic product (GSDP) in the coming years while factoring in climate change and the green economy simultaneously.

Virtually addressing the India Rural Dialogue, organised by Transform Rural India (TRI) in academic partnership with the Indian Institute of Management (IIM) Raipur on Thursday, he stated that a robust annual growth rate of 14% has been targeted.

The Dialogue brought together various speakers, including IIM Raipur Director, Ram Kumar Kakani, Chhattisgarh Chief Minister's Secretary Rahul Bhatnagar, TRI Managing Director Anirban Ghoshal.

The finance minister highlighted the challenges of climate change, such as shedding light on the challenges by the agriculture sector, including climate change and market volatility.

TRI Managing Director Ghoshal said, "We believe that fostering collaboration between the govt., academia, and the private sector, we can accelerate progress towards a climate-smart and equitable rural India."

The Indian Institute of Management (IIM) Raipur highlighted the contributions of social capital and human capital. You have capabilities and dreams, and these are such factors where we talk and learn from other people. Extremely happy to see diverse voices from civil societies, govt. and business inspire actionable ideas, echoing the spirit of significant transformation towards rural growth and prosperity, he added.

Another ongoing sector is the Health of the Forest Ecosystems. We need to take care of the forests, which are the backbone of the rural economy.
