

IIM Raipur flags off C'garh delegates for Assam under Yuva Sangam Phase V

■ Staff Reporter

RAIPUR, Jan 6

INDIAN Institute of Management (IIM) Raipur, a leading institution recognised for Building Business Owners, flagged off the delegation of students from Chhattisgarh to Assam under the Yuva Sangam Phase V initiative, a part of the Government of India's flagship programme, Ek Bharat Shreshtha Bharat on Monday.

This cultural exchange programme aims to foster unity, understanding and collaboration among India's youth by offering them unique opportunities to explore diverse cultures, traditions and communities. The flag-off ceremony, held at the Madai Auditorium of IIM Raipur, was graced by the Inspector General of Police, Raipur Range, Amresh Mishra as the Chief Guest. Speaking on the occasion, Director IIM Raipur Professor Ram Kumar Kakani said, "We at IIM Raipur take immense pride in being part of initiatives that strengthen the bonds of unity across states. Yuva Sangam Phase V is a reflection of India's ethos of celebrating diversity while working together towards shared goals.

This journey will not only broaden the horizons but also instill the confidence in the students to be ambassadors of cultural harmony and national integration." The delegates from Chhattisgarh shared their excitement about the program and their eagerness to explore the rich heritage and traditions of Assam. They received symbolic merchandise to commemorate their participation in Yuva Sangam Phase V. Chief Guest officially flagged off the delegation marking the beginning of a transformative journey for the participants.

Over the next five days, the delegates from Chhattisgarh will explore Assam's vibrant culture, historical landmarks, and community life, gaining a deeper understanding of the state's traditions and values.