

IIM-R celebrates R-Day with patriotic fervor

STAFF REPORTER ■
RAIPUR

Chhattisgarh's Indian Institute of Management Raipur (IIM-R) celebrated the 76th Republic Day with great enthusiasm, embracing the theme 'Swarnim Bharat – Virasat aur Vikas' (Golden India – Heritage and Development). The occasion was marked by stirring speeches, captivating performances and a commitment to national service.

IIM Raipur Director Prof Ram Kumar Kakani unfurled the national flag and delivered the Republic Day speech.

The IIM Director advised students to contribute towards a stronger and more equitable India by striving for inclusivity and excellence.

Prof Munmun Goswami, Professor HRM and

Organizational Behavior, speaking on this occasion elaborated the theme of Swarnim Bharat – Virasat aur Vikas, specifying the symbiotic relationship between heritage and development.

Prof Goswami also shed light on the emerging use of advanced technologies like AI and Chatbots. She concluded her speech with an inspiring quote from Swami

The IIM Director advised students to contribute towards a stronger and more equitable India by striving for inclusivity and excellence.

Vivekananda, "Let's Arise, Awake Until the Goal is Reached".

The event was concluded with cultural performances ranging from striking poetry to melodious singing and a vibrant dance performance by the students of IIM Raipur.