

IIM-R holds talks on women's leadership

Central Chronicle News

RAIPUR: Indian Institute of Management (IIM) Raipur, a leading institution recognized for #Building Business Owners, successfully hosted "Shakti Rath 2025" on the occasion of International Women's Day. This inspiring summit celebrated women in leadership, under the theme "Breaking Barriers, Building Bridges: Women Leading the Way."

The day brought together industry pioneers, policymakers, and thought leaders to discuss the evolving landscape of women's leadership and their role in driving innovation and transformation across industries. The event was graced by Chief Guest Ms. Mayuri Srivastava, Managing Director, FedEx and Guest of Honour Pankhuri Gupta, Director, Tata Consumer Products along with distinguished speakers.

Emphasizing on creating a pathway for women to excel in leadership, in her welcome address Prof. Rashmi Shukla, Chairperson Corporate Relations and Placements, IIM Raipur, shared, "This is the third consequent year of Shakti Rath, aimed to not just to celebrate a day but to take the journey forward for female MBA students, celebrating women's successes and allowing it to shape us."

Prof. Kamal K Jain,

Respect is not a favour, it is a fundamental right and learning to speak when it matters and speaking up for others is necessary.

Prof. Kamal K Jain
Distinguished Professor and Faculty Coordinator

Distinguished Professor and Faculty Coordinator, while acknowledging the power and importance of women, in his address emphasized on how women juggle family, friends, careers and the lack of acknowledgement from the society, making this event important. He mentioned, "Respect is not a favour, it is a fundamental right and learning to speak when it matters and speaking up for others is necessary."