

CM Sai invited for Public Leadership Programme to be held at IIM Raipur

■ Staff Reporter

RAIPUR, Mar 20

DIRECTOR of Indian Institute of Management (IIM) Raipur Ramkumar Kakani paid a courtesy call on Chief Minister Vishnu Deo Sai in the State Capital on Thursday.

Ramkumar Kakani invited the Chief Minister to attend a two-day Public Leadership Programme to be held at IIM Raipur on March 22 and 23.

Chief Minister Sai expressed his gratitude for the invitation and appreciated the initiative. Professor Sanjeev Parashar was also present on the occasion.

IIM Director Kakani informed that this special programme has been designed for the MLAs of Chhattisgarh, with the aim of promoting discussion on important issues related to contemporary management and policy making.

This platform will bring together eminent policy makers, academicians, and thinkers to have insightful discussions on various subjects and to find collaborative thinking and practical solutions to problems.

IIM Director Kakani said that the presence of IIM Raipur Director Ramkumar Kakani along with Professor Sanjeev Parashar calls on Chief Minister Vishnu Deo Sai on Thursday.

Chief Minister Vishnu Deo Sai and his empathetic thoughts will not only add to the grandeur of the programme but will also be inspirational for the participants.

Kakani also informed that this programme will help the MLAs to develop effective leadership skills and adopt innovative approaches in policy making. This initiative will prove to be helpful in making good governance and pro-people policies more effective in Chhattisgarh, he added.