

IIM-R inks MoU with NADT to aid research in taxation, law

Raipur: The Indian Institute of Management (IIM) Raipur, known for "#Building-BusinessOwners," signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) with National Academy of Direct Taxes (NADT), Nagpur. This agreement aims to promote academic collaboration, research, capacity building & knowledge exchange in taxation, law enforcement, public policy, management & related fields.

The collaboration will focus on joint research projects, faculty development programmes, student internships and projects, and practical exposure. Both institutions will also organise joint seminars, workshops, and conferences to facilitate continuous learning and the exchange of ideas.

IIM Raipur Director Prof Ram Kumar Kakani, stated, "This union is a strategic alignment of academic vision and practical governance needs. Such meaningful partnerships expand the knowledge horizon of young minds, giving them space to indulge in innovative thinking for public welfare."

The MoU was signed in a formal ceremony by Prof Kakani & Aakash Dewangan, Additional Director General (Planning & Research), NADT. The partnership is expected to enhance knowledge sharing by utilising expertise of both institutions & create opportunities for future collaborations in research areas. TNN
